ORDER

No.F.15 (2) FD (Rules) 2000

Jaipur, dated 6.6.2000

Subject : Grant of minimum pension to the pensioner of Covenanted States other than service pensioners.

There are certain pensioners who were granted various kinds of pension, stipend and allowances by the Government of the pre-covenanted States prior to formation of Rajasthan viz maintenance allowance, Compensatory allowance, Khanpan allowance, Guzara paltu pardayat etc. and who were drawing such pension under a Pension Payment Order issued by the Accountant General. The amount of this pension was revised to Rs.40/- per month with effect from 1.4.1979 vide Finance Department Order No. F1(44)FD(Gr.2)76 Pt.II dated 3.4.1979 and again to Rs. 100/-per month with effect from 1.12.1992 vide F.D. Order No. F.1(22)FD (Gr.2)92 dated 24.12.1992. The temporary increase in pension, Dearness Relief on pension and enhancement in the minimum pension sanctioned by the Government from time to time applies only to service pensioners (Civil. The pensioners of the aforesaid category were neither entitled to the temporary increase in pension nor for dearness relief on pension and nor for the minimum pension by the Government from time to time to the pensioners (Civil).

The matter has further been considered sympathetically and the Governor is pleased to order that the minimum pension admissible to the pensioner of covenanted States other than service pensioners under Finance Department Order No.F.1 (22) FD (Gr.2) 92 dated 24.12.1992 may be revised from Rs. 100/- per month to Rs.200/- per month with effect from 1st June 2000.

These orders shall also apply to the retired employees of the ex-State Banks of pre covenanted States viz., Shri Krishna Bank, Bharatpur, Shri Ram Laxman Bank, Dungarpur, Bundi State Bank, Bundi, Jhalawar State Bank, Jhalawar, Shahpura State bank, Shahpura, Dholpur State bank, Dholpur etc. who were granted pension by Government as a result of their liquidation or abolition.

This order shall not apply to (i) Political pensioners (ii) Devasthan pensioners and (iii) the persons who are in receipt of Khandan allowance under the Tonk State Khandan Rules. 1944.

ORDER

No. F.7 (45) FD R&AI/92

Jaipur, dated 14.9.95

Subject :-Suspension of payment of Dearness Relief on proportionate pension/family pension during the period of re-employment/employment.

The Hon'ble Supreme Court has ordered on 8.12.1994 in Civil Appeal No. 3543-46/90 Union of India and others V/s G.Vasudevan Pillai and others that denial of Dearness Relief on pension/family pension in cases of those ex-servicemen who got re-employment or those dependants got employment is legal and just. Accordingly Government of India have issued office memorandum No. 42/3/94-P&PW (o) dated 14.3.1995 that Dearness Relief on pension shall not be admissible to ex-servicemen who got re-employment or whose dependant, got employment. The same position has been held good in respect of civilians re-employed/ employed pensioners/ family pensioners as the Hon'ble Supreme Court has upheld the provisions contained in Rule 55A of CCS Pension Rules, 1972.

Accordingly the matter has been reconsidered in respect of State pensioners/ family pensioners in consultation with the Law Department and the Governor has been pleased to order that in pursuance of judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court referred above, temporary increase/Dearness Relief on pension allowed vide Finance Department orders of even number dated 24.12.92 and 12.4.93 shall remain suspended during the period of re-employment/ employment of pensioner/family pensioner.

MEMORANDUM

No.F.1(35)FD(Gr.2)/87

Jaipur, dated 2.7.1992

Subject :- Grant of Ex-gratia payment to alive widows of deceased contributory Provident Fund beneficiaries.

The undersigned is directed to say that the provisions of Finance Department Memorandum of even number dated 2.7.1991 are applicable only to the alive widows of Contributory Provident Fund retirees. The cases of alive widows of Contributory Provident Fund beneficiaries who died while in service and who are not entitled to family pension in terms of the Department Memorandum No.F.1(35) F. 5 Gr.2/87 dated 17.10.1987 were not covered under the provisions of aforesaid order.

Representations have been received from the alive widows of Contributory Provident Fund beneficiaries who died while in service for grant of Ex-gratia payment as allowed to the widows of Contributory Provident Fund retirees from time to time. Accordingly the matter has been considered sympathetically and the Governor has been pleased to order that the provisions of Finance Department Memorandum of even number dated 2.7.1991 may be extended subject to the terms & conditions laid down therein with effect from 1.11.89 to the alive widows of Contributory Provident Fund beneficiaries who died while in Government service and who are not entitled to family pension in terms of this Department Memorandum No.F.1(35)FD(Gr.2)/87 dated 17.10.1987.
